

Christmas Pot-Luck Dinner– December 4, 2013

Over 70 members of the Greely Gardeners Group and their guests attended our Christmas Pot-Luck Dinner this year, a record for the GGG. By all accounts the event was a great success; good food (our members are really good cooks), fun entertainment and lots of draw prizes for folks to take home.

Thanks to all who brought food and to Denyse Becker and Jackie Voyce who also contributed draw prizes. Special thanks go to the GGG Executive Committee who planned the event.

The centre pieces were designed and made by Lee and Phyllis Nickerson, most of the Executive Committee put together the place settings (designed by Phyllis), Susan Young organized the food side of the evening and Jane Rietze and Heather Clemenson contributed the quizzes. Gary Hall made the punch and put together the slide show, and Denyse and her husband Scott Becker provided the music.

All members of the Executive and several volunteers were on hand for the set-up and clean-up... what a team!
